Stop In for Quiet Study Space and Snacks!

by Franci Taylor

November was an exciting and productive month for the Native American Student Center(NASC) and the Native American students. On November 1st there was a First Friday Feed consisting of homemade chicken noodle soup and sides. Saturday, November 2, was the annual ASWSU Ku-Ah-Mah Round Dance. It was well attended by students and participants from the surrounding communities.

The monthly movie night was held Friday, November 15th with the comedy "Christmas in the Clouds" shown. On November 18th a number of the students participated in a workshop for students who are considering a "study abroad" year or semester. They all stated that this workshop was very informative and two are in the process to see if this will be a possibility in the next academic year. On November 20th there was a community dinner at the Native American Cultural House with over 50 students, faculty, staff and community members in attendance.

Enrollment continues for the Spring 2014 semester and students are preparing for their week of Finals which begins on December 9th. This week, December 2nd through 6th, the center will be open extended hours to accommodate study tables and individual quiet studying areas will be provided for those who want a place to study.

Friday, December 6th will be a very busy day for everyone. From 11:00am-2:00 pm the NASC will host the monthly "First Friday Feed" followed later in the afternoon by the annual Multicultural Student Services Fall Graduation Celebration, which will be taking place from 5:00 – 6:30 pm in the Butch's Den (Lower Level of the Compton Union Building). Please join the celebration for these graduates. Fall Commencement will be held on Saturday, December 7th. Fifteen Native American Students have applied to graduate during this time.
