Week of Welcome Offers Smorgasbord of Activities for New Native Cougs

by Faith Price

The WSU Native American Programs Office has a full slate of events to welcome new Native American students to campus during the WSU Week of Welcome!

Incoming freshmen and transfer students are invited to participate in four different activities designed to introduce new students to each other, their peer mentors, faculty, staff, and WSU resources for Native students.

There will be door prizes given away to those in attendance. All new Native Cougs should plan on coming!

- Native American Programs Open House

Aug 19, 10a-4p, Cleveland 23

The Native American Programs space in Cleveland Hall was completely remodeled over the summer. Come see the new Native American Student Center, the Tribal Nation-Building Leadership Classroom, the Native American Graduate Student Center, and the Clearinghouse on Native Teaching and Learning! Multicultural Peer Mentors will be around from 2-4 pm. Refreshments provided.

- Bowling Night at Zeppoz

Aug 20, 7-9p, Zeppoz, 780 SE Bishop Blvd, Pullman

New students and Peer Mentors will team up for bowling victory! No bowling skills required. Laughter encouraged. The bowling is on us!

- Ice Cream Social

Aug 21, 3-4p, Native American Culture House, 975 B Street

Ferdinand's Grabbers (WSU's award winning ice cream sandwiched between two chewy oatmeal cookies) will be on the menu Thursday at the Native American Culture House! Come beat the August heat with a sweet treat and get familiar with the Native House. Many events for the WSU Native community are held there during the year.

- All-Campus Picnic

Aug 22, 11a-1:30p, NE Fairway Rd., in front of Beasley Coliseum

Stop by the Native Programs table at the annual All-Campus Picnic on Mooberry track! There will be info on student support services, events during the school year, student organizations, and how to get involved in the WSU Native community!
