This time of year my traveling schedule will slow and I will focus on helping our applicants for fall 2015. If you are planning any events for the spring please let me know so I can get them on my calendar.

WSU Admissions – due Jan 31

Admissions Website: admission.wsu.edu

Anyone hoping to attend WSU should be aware of the priority deadline of January 31, 2015. That is the date WSU Applications for Admission and the WSU Academic Scholarship applications are due for fall 2015. They are both online, and you can save your work and come back to finish later, if you need to. A complete application includes the application itself, your official transcripts, and your test scores.

There are different applications depending on what type of student you are: a brand new freshman, a transfer student from another college, an adult student, Honors College, etc. For freshmen, if you're among the top 10 percent of your high school class or have earned at least a 3.5 GPA, you're assured admission to WSU! Just keep your grades up and get that application in on time!

WSU Academic Scholarship – due Jan 31

Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships Website: finaid.wsu.edu

One application puts you in the running for over 700 WSU scholarships, including a few earmarked for Native American students. Do not miss the January 31 deadline to submit this application online! You will NOT be considered if you apply late. You should apply EVERY year you are a WSU student.

Of course, you should also apply for other scholarships in addition to the WSU Academic Scholarship. Check with your major department for scholarships for students in your major. Look for scholarships in your community or through your tribe. Visit our scholarship page for information on WSU and outside scholarships for Native American students.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) – due Feb 15

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Website: fafsa.ed.gov

You must complete the FAFSA to be eligible for federal student aid, including grants (these you don't have to pay back!) and student loans (these you do have to pay back!). Some "need-based" scholarships also use the information you provide on the FAFSA to determine your eligibility for their scholarship.

The FAFSA application becomes available online on the 1st of January every year. At WSU, the priority deadline to complete the FAFSA is February 15. Be sure to complete your FAFSA by this date, as it can make a BIG difference in how much aid you will receive! If you and/or your parents haven't completed your taxes by February 15, you should put estimates in and then correct these after the taxes are filed rather than miss the priority deadline!
