Round Dance to be Held in Pullman

by Edmund "Frazer" Myer

ASWSU Ku–ah–mah Native American student organization, is hosting a round dance Saturday Dec. 5.

The event will be held at Gladish Community & Cultural Center in Pullman, beginning at 6 p.m. The round dance is a casual event, and is a fun way to meet new people and socialize while learning about Native American culture.

President of Ku–ah–mah, Sequoia Dance, explained that the Ku–ah–mah club gives Natives more of a presence on the WSU campus. She hopes that hosting events like this round dance, will set a precedent for future Native American students at WSU to follow. She wants to encourage them to believe that they can continue hosting events and increase recognition of Native culture.

Round dances are about feeling each–other’s positive vibes through dancing. There will be assistance to help everyone figure out the steps to the traditional Native American songs.

The Native American Women’s Association (NAWA) will be providing the food. The feed starts at 6 p.m. with a welcoming and introduction, followed by prayer by an elder. The serving of the food begins at 6:30 p.m.

The first dance will begin at 7 p.m. and the event will continue until approx. 11:30 p.m. The public is welcome to drop in at any time, for any portion of the event.

Singers are wanted for the event, and will be paid. For information contact Sequoia Dance: email: sequoia.dance@wsu.edu phone: 208–252–2915
