Council and Committee Meetings

What happens at a Snohomish County 4-H Council meeting? Come and find out! All are welcome. The next meeting is May 11th, at 7 p.m. at the WSU Ed. Center. Reminder to regular attendees: A challenge was issued to bring someone new to next week’s meeting!

The Volunteer Recognition Committee will meet at 6:00 on May 11th, just prior to the Council meeting, in the Evergreen Room of the WSU Ed. Center. Anyone interested in helping to plan or implement the annual recognition event, please join us! New faces welcome! Mark your calendars for the next annual “Thank You, Volunteers” event: November 5, 2016, eve. All 4-H volunteers and spouses/partners are invited!

“Enrolled” Volunteers who haven’t enrolled yet:

If you have been an enrolled 4-H volunteer in the past, or you have become eligible to enroll this year, please make sure you have enrolled as a volunteer in 4-H Online. We will soon be producing official lists for the fairgrounds staff, and those lists are generated from 4honline.com, so if you have not enrolled yet, please do so this week! <https://wa.4honline.com> Thank you! We don’t want you to miss out on any benefits!

Outreach Opportunities August 4th: National Night Out

National Night Out Against Crime happens all over the country on Aug. 4th (a Thursday this year). Last year Snohomish Co. 4-H was well represented at six local evening festivals! Let’s break that record! Would you or your club like to promote 4-H at your local event? Let me know! I will help figure out the details, AND I will supply you with cool banners, brochures, 4-H giveaways, etc. All you do is smile, and tell people about your 4-H experiences! Easy peasy!
