

Snohomish County

4-H

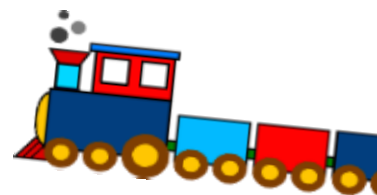

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

Snohomish County

CloverGram

January 12, 2017

Woohoo!

The winner of the End-of-Year drawing for volunteers who reported hours in every quarter last year is LINDA CONWAY! Congratulations, Linda, and thanks for reporting your hours!

New Stuff:

Final Push for Train Show Volunteer Shifts

Remember, each club is expected to fill at least two short volunteer shifts (approx. 2 hours each) for the county-wide 4-H fundraiser, the Train Show, which takes place Feb. 25-26 this year. Please sign up for a spot! Clubs that have not filled two shifts will start getting calls next week, so let's make the recruiter's job easy!

Here's what's still needed, in numbers of people:

Saturday:

Door Monitors – 6

Outside Gate Monitors – 12

Parking – 26

Ticket Sellers – 8

Sunday:

Door Monitors – 9

Entry Door Greeters – 2

Outside Gate Monitors – 16

Parking – 15

Ticket Sellers – 10

January Cloverleaf Now Available

Check it out on your 4HOnline homepage, or here: <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/wp-content/uploads/sites/7/2012/11/Cloverleaf.Jan2017.pdf>

Project Leadership Class Feb. 22nd

Are you a project leader? Would you like to be? There is just one in-person class required to get started, and that is Project Leadership. Club leaders, please encourage your project leaders to attend on Wednesday, February 22nd, 6:30 – 9:00 p.m. Sign up here: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d4caca62fa3f85-project1>

This class is also required for program leaders, and it fulfills one requirement (Experiential Education) for the Youth Development pin.

Volunteer Training: Save the date of April 15th

The spring Volunteer Education Day will be Saturday, April 15th at WSU Extension. Classes TBA next week!

Quality Assurance

Our next meeting is 1/24 at 7 p.m. at the Extension Office. We will be discussing nutrition, how to read a feed tag and the different kinds of feed. Please be sure to RSVP to beth.morrison@wsu.edu

Gardening Workshop Jan. 21st

Learn about planting bulbs and cold frames! 2-4:00 p.m. at Extension. R.S.V.P. to Diane Kelley at (360) 435-6369, creativekidspre@msn.com

Poultry Workshop Jan. 21st

Please mark your calendars for the Poultry Program Workshop which is scheduled for Saturday, January 21st, from 10:00 am to noon. It will be held at the Long House on the Evergreen State Fairgrounds.

Our guest speaker is a poultry consultant who has worked all over the world (19 countries I believe). He will share some fascinating stories of his travels to these countries and the work he has done in the poultry field. His talk should prove interesting to members as well as parents.

Washington State 4-H Teen Programs... Looking Ahead

Scholarship Applications – are now up at: <http://extension.wsu.edu/4h/youth/scholarship-opportunities/>

Teen Summit: April 1-2, at Camp Koinonia in Cle Elum; Leadership training for Middle School youth gr. 6-9