Woohoo!

Sue Martinez is the winner of the quarterly prize for reporting volunteer hours! Thank you, Sue! To report hours, e-mail beth.wangen@wsu.edu with your monthly totals (for the whole year, if you like!) or enter hours on your own at <https://volunteers.cahnrs.wsu.edu/logon.aspx>

New Stuff:

Tractor Supply Clover Campaign ONLINE

July 15-26, online shoppers at www.TractorSupply.com can donate to 4-H. We'd love to get the word out, as these funds come back to our county to support youth leadership opportunities. Youth, please consider joining our Snohomish County 4-H Youth Advisory Council to help determine which leadership opportunities we can provide for you!

Reminders:

Outstanding Exhibitor Award:

Senior level 4-H youth who have exhibited at fair at least two years are encouraged to apply for this prestigious award. Applications are due to the 4-H office by August 1st. Interviews of finalists will be the morning of Friday, August 28th, virtually by Zoom. Please encourage our outstanding 4-H exhibitors to apply!

Thanks to the Co-Op Feed Stores for providing gift card prizes.
