Tools that enable the NWDA

- Central database: Commercial XML database, IXIASOFT TEXTML
- Existing EAD applications that have been customized for NWDA use
- Locally-developed software tools
Document loading to NWDA database

• Phase I: CD-ROM discs mailed to database host site, documents loaded by staff

• Phase II: Support for online loading through a secure, access-controlled interface
Post-submission modification

- Decentralized; rely on institutions to submit compliant finding aids
- BK ReplaceEm string replacement application used for some simple customizations at the repository site

Guide to the Maps from the Library of Leonard and Virginia Woolf 1815-1956
Repository: Washington State University Libraries: Manuscripts, Archives, and Special Collections
Number of hits: 15
Summary: This collection of 49 maps was originally assembled by Leonard and Virginia Woolf. The large number of road maps attests to their enjoyment of driving vacations around Europe. Included in the collection are two maps of Rodmell, England, where in 1919 the Woolfs purchased a country house. It was in this home, named Monk's House, that Virginia Woolf wrote her first novel. Both maps are annotated by Leonard Woolf and bound and titled by Virginia Woolf.

purchased a country house. It was in this home, named Monk's House, that Virginia Woolf wrote her first novel. Both maps are arranged by Leonard Woolf and bound and titled by Virginia Woolf.

Virginia Woolf assembled this collection of 49 maps, which once formed part of their library. The large number of road maps attest to their love of traveling vacations around Europe. Of particular interest are two maps (numbers 2 and 3) of Rodmell, England; where in 1919, Leonard and Virginia purchased a country home. It was in this home, named Monk's House (though it was never inhabited by monks), that Virginia Woolf wrote her first novel. Both maps 2 and 3 were bound and titled by Virginia Woolf and contain annotations by Leonard Woolf.

Maps are arranged geographically by country.
